Hagman Invites Public Participation in Government

ONTARIO, CA – San Bernardino County Supervisor Curt Hagman today announced he is accepting applications from Fourth District residents to fill vacancies and expired terms on County Boards and Commissions.

“Our Boards and Commissions are very important to the Board of Supervisors” noted Hagman. “These citizen volunteers put their experience and expertise to work in improving county government and making it more responsive to our residents. I’m personally very grateful to all those who take the time to apply and to serve, and review every application carefully. Any of my appointments are open to all eligible Fourth District residents, and I encourage you to apply today”.

Current vacancies include one position on the Senior Affairs Commission, one expired term on the Civil Service Commission, and two expired terms on the Behavioral Health Commission. All of these seats are currently open for appointment. Experience with the civil service system is helpful, but all interested residents are invited to apply. Residents can access a full list of county-wide vacancies here:

Supervisor Curt Hagman has represented the Fourth Supervisorial District since December 2014. Prior to his election as County Supervisor, Curt Hagman served as a State Assemblyman for three terms. He is married to Grace and has two children, Jonathan and Elizabeth. In addition to his public service, Curt is also a small business owner and a member of the California State Military Reserve.
